Trip to French refugee camp by Luton woman reveals full hardships faced by those living there

Calais relief mission

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A RELIEF trip to a migrant camp opened up the eyes of the daughter of a Bosnian refugee as to just how serious the problem is becoming.

Victoria Dautovic, of Cheviot Road, Luton, travelled down with her parents and brother, Sead, on September 17 to give help with the relief effort for refugees in Calais.

Seeing it herself made her realise what a crisis this is becoming, just over 20 miles away from British shores.

Reporting back on her trip, she said: "It's so much worse than you think it is from seeing it on the news. The camp is set up on a flood plain and it gets quite boggy when it has been raining."

"It's almost unimaginable. There are 3,000 people there in tents with just 50 toilets and six taps between everyone."

The cause is very personal to Victoria, as her family found refuge from the Bosnian War when they arrived in Luton in 1992.

Her mother Kelima and her older sister Ena arrived on September 7 that year and Victoria was born at Luton and Dunstable Hospital 10 days later.

Her father, Emver, arrived in the town six months later, after time at the Omarska detention camp.

Her mother's journey took her from her hometown of Kozarac to England via a concentration camp and a refugee camp, escaping the Prijedor massacre.

It was there that an aid worker from Luton took around 20 asylum seekers back home.

Talking to LoS about her Calais experience, she said: "It was amazing and awakening to see it first hand. We got there really early in the morning and first off we went to the immigration office and handed out cake and tea to people there."

"After that, we went into the camp itself to get an idea of what it was like."

While in the camp, she spoke with a number of the refugees and saw how they live their day-to-day lives, as well as giving out donations.

She added: "We sat and had tea in a makeshift tea shop and heard a number of the stories about how people got so far, only to end up stuck in a camp."

They also visited the church and mosque which had been set up inside the camp's perimeter.

The group also handed out supplies that local people donated, which included winter clothes such as scarves, gloves, hats, socks, old coats, shoes and sanitary items for the women.

She also explained that many of the camp's residents would refuse to have their picture taken, so as to not be able to be identified as being from Calais in the future.

She added: "The majority of people who were there to help were British,

ANSWERING THE APPEAL: Victoria-Amina Dautovic (centre) and a number of other volunteers unload after their arrival at the refugee camp near Calais

I'd say around 90 per cent that I saw, along with some French people, which was nice to see as it's on both countries' doorstep."

However, Victoria also expressed concern about how quickly the country has become apathetic to the plight of refugees.

She said: "Speaking to people who have been volunteering there for a long while, they say public interest is already back to where it was before the explosion of emotion and appeals after the picture of the Syrian boy on the beach emerged."

Victoria's trip had been a long term idea and was how she wanted to spend her 23rd birthday.

While interest in the migrants' plight has fallen according to Victoria, the need for supplies and relief efforts to make their way to the people in Calais has not.

Victoria added: "A number of volunteers stay there full time, helping until they can no longer afford to but the majority usually come back for the winter."

"Winter supplies, blankets, coats as well as food are desperately needed by the people there in the coming cold months."

Victoria is planning on making a repeat trip in the next few months and has urged people to keep giving again to help the situation in Calais.

She would also like to thank everyone for their donations, which filled up the van the family took with them on their trip to France.

Any enquiries about the future trip along with any possible donations should be directed to Victoria on 07757 704033.

'No justification' for Adam's brutal murder

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@ltnmedia.co.uk

THE family of Dunstable man Adam Fanelli have spoken of their heartbreak as two men were given life for his murder.

Addy McAllister, 34, of Charlesworth Street, Bolsover in Derbyshire and Jemma Price, 30, of Ridgeway, Kensworth, near Dunstable, were found guilty by a jury of murdering 31-year-old Adam outside a travellers' site in Nash, Buckinghamshire, on St Patrick's Day this year.

In a statement, Mr Fanelli's family said: "On March 17 our whole world fell apart and we, Adam's family, have been left heartbroken and even now we still do not understand the actions of those who have taken his life or why.

"There is no justification whatsoever for the brutal and horrific manner in which Adam was killed and taken from us all.

"We have been deprived of a son, partner, nephew and his three little girls have been left without a daddy.

"Adam will never get to see

MISSED: Father Adam Fanelli

them start and leave school, go off to college or university, get married and one day have children of their own.

"We will do everything we can to ensure that the girls know all about their daddy and that we are there for them and keep his memory alive."

Mr Fanelli, died from a savage beating inflicted on him by the pair who had been on a cocaine and alcohol binge.

Both men, who between them have 10 children, had blamed the other for inflicting the injuries.

Passing sentence on Thursday, Judge Michael Kay QC told them he was satisfied it was a 'simmering dispute' between Mr Fanelli and Price which had led to him being severely beaten that night.

The judge said when the fight had begun between the two of them, McAllister had joined in and helped his friend Price, holding Mr Fanelli as he was punched.

The judge said Adam was several miles from the nearest village and added: "He was left by you to die when it was possible early medical assistance might have saved his life."

He gave Price a life sentence and told him the minimum term he must serve before he can be considered for parole is 17 years, less the 176 days he has already spent in custody awaiting trial.

McAllister was also given a life sentence and told he will have to serve a minimum term of 14 years, less the 183 days he has already spent in custody.

Bank closure leaves town with no branches

RESIDENTS in Houghton Regis are going to be without a bank branch after NatWest announced it will be pulling out of the town next month.

The bank said a decline in the number of transactions and customer visits is behind its decision to close the branch in Bedford Road on November 18.

The Houghton Regis Town Council has already written to Natwest expressing its 'extreme disappointment' over the move.

Tony Swain, one of the councillors for the Tithe Farm Ward, said the closure will leave residents with no branch in the town as others have also closed.

He said: "We feel strongly about it but I am not too sure what we can do about it.

"We are writing to the bank and I have a feeling that it's not going to make any difference.

"I'm wondering if they are not acting prematurely with the growth that is going to happen in the future and it's a shame.

"It's going to make it difficult for people such as the frail and vulnerable more than the youngsters because they are more used to internet banking."

The council said it was asking the bank to 'give some consideration to training and support to those customers who may need it to enable them to access alternative banking options'.

In a statement, NatWest said it had reached an agreement with the local post office to allow customers there to check their balance, deposit and withdraw funds. The bank said only 59 customers used the branch and that transactions had fallen by 34 per cent since 2011. Most of its users now use online and mobile banking.

A Natwest spokeswoman said: "We have taken the difficult decision to close the NatWest Houghton Regis branch on November 18.

"We are working hard to ensure there are a number of alternative ways for people in the area to continue to bank with us."

TOWN CENTRE GETS A DEEP CLEAN

A DAY of deep cleaning, commissioned by the Luton Business Improvement District, was carried out on critical areas of the town centre yesterday.

The hot spots in need of attention were identified by the BID's three uniformed ambassadors, whose role includes patrolling businesses and welcoming visitors.

Street cleaning, to improve the appearance and overall feel of the town centre, was flagged up as a priority when businesses voted yes to becoming a Business Improvement District.

WAR MEMORIAL RIDE KICKS OFF

THE second annual Ride To Remember departed the Luton War Memorial on Friday morning on their way to pay their respects to the fallen in the First World War.

The team of cyclists are raising money for charities which include Help for Heroes, The Royal British Legion, the Air Ambulance Service and the Luton Poppy Appeal.

On Friday the cyclists travelled to Chatham for the first overnight stay.

Riding began again early yesterday morning, catching the ferry and finishing day two in Dunkirk.

POLICE REFERRED TO WATCHDOG

THREE police forces, including Bedfordshire, have referred themselves to the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) after an injured motorcyclist was left in a ditch for more than two hours - because the forces could not decide who should rescue him.

Richard Collins, from Everton, near Sandy, crashed close to Tilbrook, Cambridgeshire, which borders Bedfordshire and Northamptonshire.

His bike crashed off the B645 road close to the border of the three counties on Sunday afternoon and was eventually taken to Bedford Hospital in a police car with an injured arm that evening.

Despite a 999 call going in shortly after 4pm, emergency services did not arrive until 6.40pm.

Trouble brewing over £600k 'coffee shop'

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LIBERAL Democrat councillor has slammed the new travel centre, calling it no more than a coffee shop.

Cllr David Franks asked Labour Cllr Sian Timoney last week why the new £600,000 centre, which also houses a Starbucks, does not have a phone number for people to call for information.

Cllr Franks said: "It's not a travel centre at all if you cannot make phone enquiries."

"If you have to travel to Station Road to ask questions in person it is not much use if you don't know the bus routes and timetables."

"Cllr Sian Timoney said you should phone the bus company."

"All the publicity about this new centre suggests it can give information on all kinds of travel modes, this is clearly not so."

"It's a coffee shop and the council should be made to pay back the £600,000 grant it got from the government to build it."

The facility faces Luton Station and was built using a grant successfully secured from the Government's Local

BEAN COUNTERS: The new travel centre/coffee shop and, below, Cllr David Franks Sustainable Transport Fund.

His views were echoed by a local resident, Doreen Steinberg.

She said: "The whole operation is a farce and the council's arrogant disregard for residents is typical, not to mention how the set-up is funded."

"What is needed is a proper tourist information service in the town centre like the one which used to be in the library, not a few leaflets."

In response to Cllr Franks, Cllr Timoney said: "It was always intended as a place for people who are on foot to use."

"It was always designed to be a face-to-face information centre."

"The idea of having a phone there is less than necessary as you can call Arriva for bus information, as well as all travel information being online."

"If there was a widespread call for a phone to be introduced there I would look into the possibility, but as it is I have heard of nobody complaining about it."

GOSH, thanks Wilko!

A STORE in The Mall has raised £850 in pennies for Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity, which has created a mosaic to thank them.

Wilko collected 'a mile of pennies,' 85,000 in total, for the charity which raises vital funds to help the hospital provide world-class care for young patients and their families, pioneer new treatments and support the redevelopment of the hospital.

A spokeswoman for Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity said: "We're very grateful to staff who helped to organise the mile of pennies at the Wilko store in Luton."

"All the money raised by staff at the Luton store will help us to make a huge difference to patients treated at the hospital."

Free book offer falls flat

A COMMUNITY project in the town centre which is on the move has said it has had difficulty giving away free books.

Community Development Through Martial Arts (CDMA), led by Victor Evelyn, is moving from its George Street base because it has to make way for a new tenant.

The project, which runs martial arts classes and a library on behalf of environmental charity Healthy Planet, has used the old Yorkshire Bank site for the last 14-months.

Mr Evelyn said he will focus on helping people 'who want the books' after finding it hard to give them away for free.

He said: "Since we opened we have had a lot of community groups using the centre and giving away books for free.

"We have done things for kids and a lot of community stuff and fundraising has been going on. It's been hard giving away free books to people because they come to town to buy something. When they come here and ask about the books, we say they are free and they literally back up and keep asking how does it work and how we make money."

MOVING: Victor Evelyn (right) said finding a new home in the town centre for the project has been 'very difficult'

Mr Evelyn said he thinks the negative connotations surrounding the word 'free' could be behind people's reluctance to take the books.

He added: "The word does get out that they are free but we have to put so many signs on the window saying the books are free."

Traveller pitches plan sparks anger

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

PROPOSALS to create new traveller pitches have angered the occupiers of an existing site who say it is not fit for purpose.

Jolene Riley, who has lived on the site in St Thomas's Road, Stopsley, for over 20 years, warned that children risk serious injury because residents have no space for their cars and emergency vehicles cannot come in.

On Monday, councillors at Luton Borough Council were due to discuss proposals to create 14 more pitches on the tennis courts at the old Regional Sports Centre behind the current site.

However, a spokeswoman for the authority said plans were withdrawn because new government guidelines mean officers have to reconsider the plans and consult the public again.

Any new proposals are sure to be met with opposition from travellers on the existing site and residents on St Thomas Road, who claim more pitches will lead to an increase in anti-social behaviour.

Jolene said: "They can build a new site at the back but there are so many travellers here already and they can't even watch the kids. We have been asking the council for years to make this site wider because this site is not safe for children.

"Anybody on this site will tell you the exact same thing.

"We are saying that some child is going to die on this site because people have nowhere to park."

Doris Davies, who also lives at the site, said she had good relations with some residents but felt travellers were unfairly treated.

She said: "In my view, if some of these people had their way they would gas us".

The council said it was not aware of any complaints but was planning to carry out work on the existing site.

VICTIM: Nicola said she knew a woman who was chased away by the same dog

Pooch suffers serious injury in attack by pitbull-like dog

A PET owner's German Shepherd was left with two puncture wounds after being attacked by another dog.

Nicola Foksett, of Halfway Avenue, Luton, was walking with Samson at Caddington Golf Club on September 20 when a 'tan-coloured, pitbull-like' dog, which was not wearing a collar or a leash, attacked him.

He needed treatment and Nicola also suffered a bite to her hand. Bedfordshire Police is investigating the incident.

She said: "I know how dogs play up and have little disagreements but I have never seen anything like it."

"I told my dog to wait and this dog has just floored him. I thought I was going to lose him."

Any information can call the police on 101.

Town's heritage 'worst in the UK'

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

DESPITE once being a place of booming industry, Luton has been ranked dead last in a new study about the heritage of UK towns.

Luton's heritage has been deemed to be the 'worst' of any town or city in the country in research carried out by the Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufacture and Commerce (RSA). The rating takes in over 100 indicators, looking at activities available and heritage assets, adjusted for the size of the town, both in terms of people and land area.

Jonathan Schifferes, lead researcher for the RSA heritage, said: "Luton has five conservation areas, as well as 82 listed buildings, but it's not always about what you've got but what you do with it, which Luton doesn't do well."

But RSA employee, Matthew Parsfield, a Lutonian himself, has been quick to jump to the town's defence, saying: "In many ways history hasn't been kind to Luton in terms of preserving the town's visible heritage."

"Hat factories are still dotted all over the place but they just look like big houses to the untrained eye."

He also pointed at the Luton's industrial history has played a part, with German bombing raids on the Vauxhall factory in the Second World War leading to a necessary 'modernist' re-build in the 1950s and 60s.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Are bacteria and viruses really a problem?

Advertorial

Yes - If you've got a young family, with children bringing home new germs daily from schools and nurseries - there could be someone in the family suffering from a bacteria or virus for up to 30 weeks each year.

Yes - If your immune system is not responding fully or has been weakened by treatments at the doctors or hospitals, harmful bacteria can seriously infect those whose body cannot fight off germs.

Yes - In the modern office, bacteria builds up in areas difficult to clean like keyboards, phones, on doors, walls, carpets and mats. Bad personal habits of co-workers, such as sneezing, coughing and not washing hands spread germs that will survive, grow and infect for months

Yes - If you suffer allergic reactions or asthma, where bacteria, mould and fungi fill the air with their spores

In a world where the average desk has 400 times more bacteria than a toilet, where more and more bacteria are becoming resistant to antibiotics, in the UK where over 600,000 people will be affected by norovirus - how can you make your home or place of work safer?

Sanondaf - a new, specialist disinfection company can really help. # Offshore firms own millions in property

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carlmungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

LAND and property worth millions in Luton is in the hands of offshore firms, new research has revealed.

Data compiled by satirical magazine Private Eye shows that a number of places around the town centre have been bought by foreign companies between 2005 and 2014.

Big ticket locations include Moorland Gardens, owned by Jersey-based Regency Investment Limited, which was registered in 2008 and cost £223 million.

Seychelles' firm Darien International Ltd owns land and buildings off Park Street West worth £4.1m while land on Castle Street worth £7.4m is held by Jersey company Perth Investments Ltd.

Councillor Tom Shaw, responsible for housing at Luton Borough Council, said all the largest sites in the town were subject to planning applications or development plans.

The town has a chronic housing shortage and is having to contend with a lack of new developments and councils from London housing their residents here.

He said: "The regeneration department has the details for all the big sites and they are talking to them. I do not think there's a big site that does not have a planning application on it. The town's problem is that it is full and some of the land is owned by people outside the country but there's nothing we can do about that."

Property developer David Westcott said some offshore firms see unused land as a long-term investment. He said: "Certain types of land get bought by these companies, get planning permission and then sold on."

Hellavagirl hits runway again

A FASHION designer who recently opened a studio in Dunstable has shown off her latest collection at London Fashion Week.

Barnfield College tutor Helen Woollams, who set up her luxury label Hellavagirl two years ago, said her spring/summer 2016 designs were well-received.

She and her team are now preparing for Paris Fashion Week which starts on Tuesday.

She said: "The place was packed, people were standing and they even stopped people coming in."

"It was great and really well received. We did a fashion film and took control of all the lighting. I really wanted to up my game and we are getting some really good press."

My Mall hero

I WOULD like to express by thanks to the gentleman who came to my assistance and summoned help when I was found collapsed in the Mall lift on Friday, August 25.

Also thanks to the member of the Mall staff and the lady who was just a voice for coming to assist my second collapse and stayed with me until the arrival of the paramedics who attended to me and speedily got me to the hospital.

I am truly grateful to them all.

Corbyn needs reality check

IT is to their credit that Messrs Shuker and Hopkins have declined to join Corbyn's front bench, though I'm not sure that Mr Hopkins' decision was entirely driven by doubts about the decidedly retrograde 'Old Labour' policies on offer.

I've never had a very clear understanding of economics and, judging by the arguments that top economists have with each other, I'm not convinced that many of them

Corbyn 'good news' for all

I AM delighted with Jeremy Corbyn's victory in which he secured 60 per cent of the votes, a decisive and solid and mandate to reform the party, compared to only 24 per cent of the eligible voters electing our present Tory government.

JC's victory was a triumph for democracy with over half a million taking part and another 50,000 joined the Party since JC's victory. This victory in which JC secured more support than Tony Blair election to the leadership is a victory for everyone who opposes austerity, inequality, poverty, low pay and damages to our welfare state and public services. The Labour MPs in parliament must come to terms with the wishes of the Party membership.

JC wants a new kind of Party and politics that breaks with the pro-austerity consensus and sets out the values, principles and vision from the Tories. JC's shadow cabinet made up of a majority of women who are leading in key posts such as education, health, business, and the environment and drawn from all political wings of the party.

The relentless attacks by the corporate media including the BBC, the establishment and renegade New Labour members against JC are unprecedented, and worse that the attacks on Michael Foot or Kinnock when they were elected as leaders.

JC is an honest, capable, decent, committed, hard working person who has given decades of service and support to the most vulnerable and oppressed people in our society.

He is committed to real justice, fairness, peace and equal access to resources and opportunities for all and not just for the few.

do either. But I do know some history and that's why I'm deeply concerned about the rise of Jeremy Corbyn. He apparently wants to nationalise everything in sight when history tells us that state run organisations are mostly inefficient, slow to adapt to changing needs and incredibly expensive for the taxpayer. They can also be very costly to purchase from their owners in the first place. True, the railways won't cost anything to buy because they revert to the state when their current franchises expire. But that won't be for many years.

He also wants to scrap our nuclear deterrent. Most moral people support the vision of a more equal society.

The current gap between rich and poor is obscene. But to attempt to achieve this by suddenly jacking up the taxes of the rich has a clear record of producing exactly the wrong results because it incentivises the rich to avoid paying taxes altogether.

There are so many things that are just plain wrong with this guy's ideas. But at least his rhetoric has now got to face a reality check. Politics, they say, is the art of the possible, and he's now faced with having to find enough people to support him who don't know their history or who still admire its string of abject failures.

Let the children suffer

THERE'S not enough houses being built. There never will be, with open door mass immigration.

David Cameron promised us that he would keep it under control. He lied again. If we just keep building more and more houses. Future generations won't know what a blade of grass looks like.

That's always been our problem. We never care about the future.

Let our children suffer the consequences of our actions.

Harry leads the Arsenal charge against Stoke

A FOOTY mad lad was given the experience of a lifetime when he led the Arsenal team out against Stoke City.

Eight-year-old Harry Tagg, from Barton-le-Clay, was selected at random from more than 34,000 Junior Gunners to be Arsenal's mascot at the Gunners 2-0 win at the Emirates Stadium on September 12.

He also met Arsenal manager Arsène Wenger and went into the home changing room prior to the game where he met the whole of the squad.

Harry said: "It was such an honour to be a mascot for Arsenal."

"It was an unforgettable experience, especially to have my family at the match to enjoy it with me."

Heroin smugglers get 17 years in jail

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

THREE men have been locked up after they tried to smuggle a kilo of heroin into the country.

The drugs, which had a potential street value of up to £200,000, were seized on Christmas Day after officials from the UK Border Force intercepted a package from Pakistan. The delivery, which was destined for an address in Luton, contained 180 mini footballs.

While Border Force staff were examining the cargo, they noticed a lump on one of the footballs, which revealed 17 of them to be containing heroin.

Bedfordshire Police launched an investigation and on December 30, Sarfraz Asif, 34, of Wingate Road, Luton, was arrested at the address the package was destined for on suspicion with importing a controlled class A drug.

Two further arrests were then made in March. Shamiraz Khan, 33, of Highbury Road, Luton, and Syed Haider, 35, of Asburnham Road, Luton, were both arrested and charged with importing a controlled class A drug.

Khan and Haider pleaded guilty and Asif was later found guilty following a trial.

Last Friday they were sentenced to a total of 17 years of imprisonment.

Arrest in case of missing woman

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

DETECTIVES investigating the case of a woman who vanished 12-years ago, and is believed to have been murdered, have arrested a man in connection with her death.

The 71-year-old, from Scotland was bailed until October following his arrest on suspicion of assisting an offender and preventing a lawful burial.

Natalia Doherty, 50, from Luton, was last seen on April 15, 2003, in Eastbourne, where she was living at the time. She is thought to have travelled to the town to stay with her ex-husband, Gerald Doherty, who has since died.

Earlier this week cold case detectives said they believe the mother-of-three, who also used the surnames Wilkanowska and Logan, had been murdered. They searched an address in Icknield Way following the arrest.

Police have spent the last 20-months on the case and their investigations have failed to show any sign that Natalia is alive.

It is known she went to stay with her ex-husband in the Regents Arms in Hastings Street before she vanished.

DI Jerry Waite said: "We know Natalia had close links with the Luton area around the time of her disappearance and we understand she was brought to stay with her former husband in a pub in the town in 2003.

"We would appeal for anyone who recognises Natalia or her late estranged husband Gerald Doherty from their time at the Regents Arms to get in touch on 101."

Road finds its roots in winning rally race driver

THIS week Howard Chandler looks at the links between Vauxhall and Luton's streets:

MANY Luton families took advantage of the £10 assisted passage scheme in the 1960s to emigrate to Australia to work for GM Holden.

The 4th road in Bushmead with a Vauxhall connection honours a man who, as far as I know, never visited Luton or England, but helped make Holden successful.

Edkins Close celebrates Boyd Robertson Huey Edkins, born in Queensland, Australia, in 1884 and who became the most successful Vauxhall racing driver in the world.

He worked for a Vauxhall agent in Brisbane before forming his own business, Boyded, which is still a successful dealership today.

Retailers often took part in races and rallies to promote their cars and Edkins was a successful driver who broke records.

By 1920 he was regarded as invincible in racing and recorded victories in various hill-climb and endurance events. He continued competing until his death in 1930, aged 46.

Town's best await your awards vote

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carlmungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

WITH this year's Luton's Best Awards not too far away, we take a look at some of the winners from the ceremony last year.

The awards, organised by Love Luton, are a way to recognise unsung heroes in the town who selflessly go above and beyond expectations.

Luton in Harmony award Pastor Lawrence Fagbayi

Pastor Lawrence is a leading light in the town's interfaith and intercultural relations.

He is inspirational in his efforts, working with all sections of the community for cohesion and harmony in Luton through Neighbours Together which he set up more than five years ago and continues to go from strength to strength.

Leisure and Culture: Museum Makers

In August last year Museum Makers set a new Guinness World Record for 'largest gathering of people wearing straw boater hats'.

With Luton's long history and association with the hat

INSPIRING: Mr Neale (above left) who won last year's outstanding teacher award is said to be a 'passionate' educator in Luton trade. The event not only raised the profile of the Museum Makers' project and Wardown Park Museum but also served to promote Luton and core values of positivity, culture and heritage.

Outstanding Teacher: Vince Neale

Mr Neale is a passionate and inspiring teacher. His enthusiasm, ability to motivate and engage his students is described as quite remarkable.

He engages with students extremely well, making lessons relevant and getting to know those in his classes as well as on an individual basis so he knows what motivates them.

Mr Neale is part of a small team who give up lunchtimes, Saturday mornings and school holidays to do Boosters in the run up to GCSEs.

FA a step ahead in sport inclusion

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

SPORT should be a level playing field, welcoming people of all backgrounds. But when it comes to football there is still work to be done.

That's according to Butch Fazal, who has dedicated a large portion of his life to inclusion and diversity in the game he loves.

Now he wants to see Bedfordshire FA become a standard bearer for inclusion and diversity thanks to a new plan taking shape.

As part of its new Inclusion and Anti-Discrimination Plan, Bedfordshire FA has launched a drive to find volunteers for a new Inclusion Advisory Group (IAG).

Sarah DaCosta, the new inclusion and safeguarding officer for the county FA, said: "We want to make sure people know how and where to get into football and to offer new projects supporting groups who may have felt excluded in the past."

The new group, chaired by

While bigotry is present in society it will always be present in football, according to charity Show Racism The Red Card. But strides forward have been made and Bedfordshire FA is looking to take things a step further with a new diversity initiative...

Bobby Madhur, will meet a minimum of four times each year and report directly to the Bedfordshire FA Board, of which Mr Madhur is a member, on all issues relating to inclusion, equality and diversity.

Mr Madhur said: "The idea is to represent the people of Bedfordshire in football, whatever their ethnicity, gender or sexual orientation or if they're disabled."

"Six members would be sufficient for the IAG, but what's most important is that we get a group which can represent the different communities in the county." Mr Madhur is hopeful of getting the IAG set up before the end of the year.

He added: "I'm really looking forward to heading this group, representing such a diverse county and ensuring that nobody is excluded from having a voice."

Mr Fazal has worked closely with Bedfordshire FA, most recently with the From Head Scarves to Football Scarves initiative, which aims to increase the involvement of young south Asian women in football by organising trips to games.

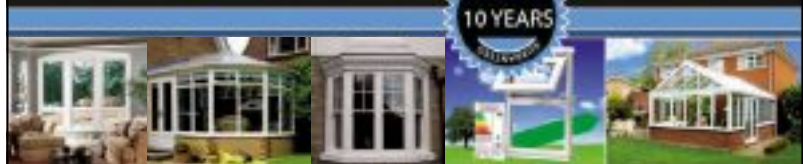

He is also race equality adviser to The Football Association and chairman of Asians in Football Forum.

LEVEL PLAYING FIELD:
The new group will look to improve diversity and inclusion in the sport across Bedfordshire

Mr Fazal said: "The issue isn't focused on discrimination any more as much as it is on inclusion."

"A lot of bad things happened in the past but I think, outside of a few isolated incidents, football as a whole has moved on from the racist atmosphere in the past."

"I welcome the initiative and it just shows the progress we are making as a county and also as a governing body."

"How far we've come in terms of diversity would have been unimaginable in the 80s and 90s."

Despite this, there is still room for improvement, both in the stands and on the pitch.

Mr Fazal added: "Football has a habit as an institution of passing it onto communities to increase diversity."

"What we need to do is to develop long running partnerships with professional clubs."

"We need a long running, sustainable project to make football more inclusive on the field and to make the most of young, minority, particularly Asian, footballers."

He was quick to add that he hopes that some of the emerging communities in Bedfordshire do not get overlooked, such as eastern European groups, and urged any minorities to try and get involved with the IAG.

There is an open day for anybody interested in joining the group on Tuesday, October 13, 6pm-9pm, at the Bedfordshire FA's offices in Skimpot Road, Dunstable, or you can contact Sarah on sarah.dacosta@bedfordshirefa.com for information and an application pack. The closing date is October 30.

Young talent bring new arts culture to town's top venues

THEATRE

LUTON LIVE FESTIVAL

Luton Library Theatre
October 10, 1pm-midnight

COME and watch local artists stretch their musical wings at the Luton Live Music Festival taking place in less than a fortnight.

100% Young Producers, an initiative which encourages young people to take part in the arts, is hosting the first of a three-part event series which also includes a film and theatre festival.

Under the guidance of more senior creatives, the young people, who include 22-year-old Addie Akinrinade, a trainee producer at the Full House Theatre company, are learning the ropes in the arts industry.

How does it all work?

Addie said: "It's our first music festival. We got some funding to do a music, film and theatre festival, so the film festival will be held in November and the theatre event is in March.

"For the music festival, in the afternoon we have a few bands playing in the Luton Library Theatre and we are also going to have some industry talks to back things up. Later on we are going to move to the Hat Factory for a more chilled event.

"We have just extended our submission deadline and we have had 20 submissions but we have not yet decided who to select.

"The maximum number of acts we chose depends on the quality, so if we have got a lot of good quality acts then we will fit them in.

"Most of the submissions are from local acts and we have had a few from London. They are all musicians but we have opened it up to different styles of music."

In recent years there have been on-going efforts to form a 'creative quarter' in the town in the area surrounding the Hat Factory. A number of film, digital, music and publishing companies are currently based in the area, and the Young

Producers are the latest to join the move to celebrate the town's creative exports.

How has the scheme helped people like Addie?

"Since I joined Young Producers two years ago we have done a theatre show and the Luton Cans Film Festival (pictured). We also do bits and bobs to get our name out there. There's quite a few of us and people drop in and out here and there.

"We have found it to be an interesting process and we don't think there's enough emphasis on the arts in Luton. We think there's a lot of potential, especially with young people who have left university."

Tickets cost £5 and can be booked by calling the box office on 01582 878100 or visiting lutonculture.co.uk

Other events to look for by the Young Producers include the film festival on November 28 and the theatre festival on March 18-20 next year.

Seek out the Searchers for musical magic

MUSIC

THE SEARCHERS

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Sunday, October 11

SECOND only to The Beatles, The Searchers are considered by many to be the most significant of many bands to find fame in the 1960s Merseyside musical explosion.

Still going strong, performing over 200 shows a year, the group are coming to Dunstable next month as their remarkable career continues.

With such classic hits as, Sweet's for my Sweet; Needles and Pins; Don't Throw your Love Away; Sugar and Spice and When you Walk in the Room, they have contributed enormously in establishing the UK as the world's leading nation in the music industry.

There is no doubt that the decade that gave us The Beatles as well as The Searchers and many others was very special and will go down in history as being the most imaginative period of music creativity and expression.

With total record sales well in excess of 50 million, The Searchers still have great appeal to audiences of all ages.

They tour the globe as much today as they have done throughout a fantastic career spanning five decades, with the group still featuring founding member John McNally, who remains the group's one constant since they were founded in 1959.

Their special solo concert has been enthusiastically and warmly received throughout the world. Combined with anecdotes and reminiscences, this fully self-contained concert includes all their famous hits, plus many album recordings, B-sides and a selection of other collector and well known favourites which any fan will not want to miss.

Tickets cost £19.50, with a £1.95 fee for telephone and online bookings.

Mesmerising Indian ritual dance will light up Factory stage

DANCE

MY SOUL IS ALIGHT

The Hat Factory

October 8, 7.30pm-9.30pm

INDIAN dance is a thing of beauty and fascination, recently capturing the imagination of audiences at the BBC Young Dancer and the Colour of Time event in Luton.

Katie Ryan and Parbati Chaudhury bring you a night of two dance styles – Kathak and Odissi, designed to entertain and mesmerise.

Kathak is a style with fluid movements, complex foot rhythms and rapid-fire spins, while Odissi is renowned for strength, grace and sculptural stances.

The contrasting qualities of the two will unfold over the evening as both dancers show off their technical abilities and storytelling skills. The audience will get the chance to see the evolution of the dance forms from their roots in the temples.

Katie will perform a duet with singer Ranjana Ghatak, based on the Bengali poet Tagore's work, and Parbati will dance to a Bach violin Partita.

Before her move to Chester Katie had a brief stint working at the Hat Factory and has performed on numerous occasions in Bedfordshire. She trained in Odissi for 20 years in the UK and India and graduated from London Contemporary Dance School in 2008.

Parbati is a London-born and based dance artist and teacher. She started her training in Kathak from the age of eight, from several teachers and continues under the tutelage of Urja Desai Thakore.

Tickets cost £10, with concessions are £8. Call the box office on 01582 878100.

THEATRE

POCKET MERCHANT

Luton Library Theatre

October 6, 1.30pm-2.45pm

ONE of William Shakespeare's classic plays gets a 'compact' interpretation when award-winning group Propeller Theatre rolls into town.

The all-male group, which has toured extensively around the world, brings to life one of Shakespeare's darkest plays.

Directed by Edward Hall (who has also worked on TV shows Strike Back and Spooks), the cast tries to take a new approach to the romantic comedy.

The group has described its work as an inspiring introduction not only to Shakespeare, but also to the 'very best of English theatre'.

Jon Trenchard, a member of the nine-strong crew putting on 31 performances of this particular production, plays Portia and Jessica.

He said: "The company always has a modern aesthetic to the design, even though it's Shakespeare, in this particular instance it is set in a prison."

"The reason behind it is that this version, which is cut down, focuses very much on the story of Shylock and there's a lot of abuse going on between the religious factions."

He added: "In most modern societies if you were suffering that abuse you would move and we are trying to show a setting where that abuse was unavoidable."

The group's all-male composition was born 17-years ago when a one-off production of Henry V led to repeat performances. 'Pocket Merchant' comes with an all-female production helping the actors tell an uncompromising tale of greed and revenge.

So how has Jon approach his role?

He said: "I think there are some interesting things to be seen in having a man play a woman a Shakespeare play."

"You have Portia who dresses up as a man and then you have a man playing a woman who is dressing up as a man, so we hope that will engage the audience's imagination."

■ After the performance there will be a Q&A with the audience. Tickets cost £8 and can be booked by calling the box office on 01582 878100.

Charles plays game of thrones in award-winning royalty drama

THEATRE

KING CHARLES III

Milton Keynes Theatre

October 12 - October 17

A CRISIS is facing the royal family in Mike Bartlett's award winning play.

Following its successful run in the West End and coinciding with its start on Broadway, Charles III is coming to Milton Keynes Theatre as part of its UK tour.

Just as many have finished celebrating Queen Elizabeth II becoming the longest reigning British monarch, in this alternate reality the Queen is dead.

Prince Charles, after waiting for almost a lifetime, is still waiting to take control.

But after such a long, esteemed reign by the previous monarch, along with ideas of republicanism taking hold, how could any ascension to the throne be a simple process?

Before his coronation a problem arises that brings about a constitutional crisis and leaves the country on the brink of civil war.

His power is formidable – but how should he use it?

And in reality, does he really have the last say?

CHANGE OF HEART: Harry gets his head turned when he gets romantically involved with a young republican named Jess Following runs at the Almeida Theatre and the Wyndham Theatre in the West End, and picking up the Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Play 2015, King Charles III is now in the middle of its first run across the country.

Directed by the Almeida Theatre's artistic director Rupert Goold, and starring Robert Powell as the newly instated monarch, King Charles III explores the people underneath the crowns, the unwritten rules of our democracy and the conscience of Britain's most famous family.

All the members of the royals are represented including William (Ben Righton), Camilla (Penelope Beaumont), Kate (Jennifer Bryden) and Harry (Richard Graves).

There could even be a shadowy appearance by the 'People's Princess'. Whether you are a loyal monarchist or a staunch republican, this play is thrilling, funny and thought-provoking.

Book your tickets by calling 0844 871 7652 or visit atgtickets.com/miltonkeynes.

Tickets range from £20.40 to £37.90, plus booking fees. Booking fees apply for both online and telephone orders.

In depth look at history of our stately homes

TALK

GREAT ESTATES

Houghton Regis Library

Thursday, October 8

FANCY living the Downton Abbey lifestyle?

A series of talks across Bedfordshire run by Bedfordshire and Luton Archive Service will give you a glimpse behind the scenes of some of the county's stately homes, as well as a peek into the lives of the people who lived and worked there.

Kathryn Faulker, an archivist who is leading the talk said: "Most of it is about the families who lived in the houses and the history of their estates."

"We originally wanted to try and tell the stories of the servants, but unfortunately there was not enough information preserved about their roles."

The Houghton Regis talk will be the third such talk, following ones in Luton and Sandy in previous months.

She added: "While we are going to focus predominantly on the bigger homes we are also going to tailor each event to its locality."

"For example, at this talk we will be looking in more detail at Houghton Hall."

This will be the third of ten planned talks on the topic.

To book, call Houghton Regis Library on 0300 30080585.

For more information on this and future events in the series, contact the Bedfordshire and Luton Archives Service on 01234 228833.

Admission is £2 per person.

What Your Agent Has To Say

How to sell your property in six weeks

SO WE are approximately 13 weeks away from Christmas and your property is still on the market with not much happening?

However, don't give up on the thought of selling before Christmas because you still can! As the Director of VA Property Consultants, a buzzing vibrant estate agency in Luton Town Centre, I would like to help make this happen by giving you some top tips to selling your house in six weeks.

Tip No. 1 Lighten up those rooms. If you have a dark room, add a table lamp or a nice decorative floor lamp in the corner but don't go over the top and put every light on in the house unnecessarily. You need just enough light to give each room a glow as many of your viewings now will be in the afternoon and early evenings after the sun has gone down so your property needs to light itself up and sell.

Tip No. 2 De-clutter the hallway. Make a great first impression with your entrance hallway as this is the first internal room the buyer will see. Make it warm and enticing so potential buyers want to see more of your home. If it's cluttered, the first impression of your house is that it's cramped, rather than open and spacious. Move unnecessary items such as hanging coats, muddy shoes and the Hoover out of sight and instead put flowers on the hall table, it is so easy and creates an instant good feeling about the house

Tip No. 3 Let the air in and breathe. Musty-smelling rooms are off-putting and make people want to get out before they have even noticed the stunning ceiling rose. As it's autumn you can still open windows without the fear of making the house feel too cold, and don't forget to air any rarely used rooms – especially teenagers' bedrooms.

VA Property Consultants are ready at the end of the phone to give you lots of free advice and practical tips to help sell your property fast this winter.

VA are an independent small family run estate agent with a personal mission to sell your property at the best possible price, in the shortest time, with minimal stress to you so you can move on with your life and be happy! We are so confident that we are saying to all our clients that if we don't sell your house in six weeks we will reduce our 1% fee!

Put us to the test and call for a chat about selling your property today on 01582 346 203 and speak with me, Venessa Afonja, the Director of the Company, personally and I will get the clock ticking!

PRESS RELEASE SEPTEMBER 2015SELL NOW AND MOVE BY CHRISTMAS, SAYS CONNELLS

Local estate agency Connells in Luton is urging homeowners to start marketing their homes now if they want to be moved by Christmas. According to the branch, September is an ideal time to sell your home. With children back at school and the summer holidays over, buyers are returning to the market and looking to purchase before the end of the year.

"If you are looking to move, September is a great time to put your property on the market," says Lee Clark, Branch partner for Connells. "It is traditionally one of the busiest times of the year for us as there is renewed interest in moving after the summer break."

The branch has already seen an uplift in activity since the start of the month, with more would-be buyers registering an interest in buying this year. Indeed, demand is such that the branch needs more properties in order to meet current buyer interest.

Lee continues, "Potential buyers are turning their attention back to the market at this time of the year and in the run up to Christmas. We would urge those interested in moving to make the most of the heightened autumn opportunities and a buoyant local housing market."

If you are interested in moving before the end of the year, or would like to book a free market appraisal with Connells, please contact the branch on 01582 450999 or email: Luto@connells.co.uk

Suzuki Vitara

Take a look inside...

The Vitara, Suzuki's latest compact crossover, aims to build a lot of talent into four metres. With a choice of petrol or diesel, front or all-wheel drive and styling that's more assured than anything Suzuki has brought us before, it looks to be a competitive proposition.

The mechanicals aren't anything too surprising, shared as they are with the existing SX-4 S-Cross. That means buyers get to choose between either a 1.6-litre petrol engine or a much preferable Fiat-sourced 118bhp 1.6 diesel, both being offered in front or four-wheel drive guises. The petrol engine is fitted with a five-speed manual gearbox as standard with an optional CVT transmission also offered. Go diesel and you get a six-speed manual 'box. The short overhangs will help with off-roading but the 185mm ground clearance isn't that generous.

The ALLGRIP four-wheel-drive transmission features an electronically controlled clutch pack, controlled by a four-position switch on the centre console. Choose 'Auto' and it'll stick to driving the front wheels unless slip is detected, whereupon the rear wheels are pressed into action. 'Sport' diverts up to 20 per cent of torque to the rear wheels to give livelier handling. 'Snow' offers permanent four-wheel drive with the system choosing how much torque to split front and rear, while 'Lock' splits the torque equally between front and rear.

With tight proportions and a front end that has more than a hint of current Land Rover design about it, the Vitara is quite an assured piece of design work.

Suzuki cabins have long been the marque's weak link but this Vitara shows the company pulling its socks up a bit. Okay, so the idea of body-coloured metal across the dash isn't a new one but Suzuki also offers chrome around the gearlever and door trims, plus an analogue clock. It's by no means a large vehicle, breaking the tape at just over four metres long, but still features a features a 375-litre boot. That's competitive with the rival Renault Captur, although the Suzuki lacks the Renault's sliding rear bench seats.

The portents look promising for this Vitara. Pricing, after all, pitches this car against much less capable crossover models. If you want a vehicle of this kind that's fashionable without being fake, this Suzuki might certainly appeal.

Renault Reveals Dynamically Styled, High Tech New Megane

The dynamic-looking, high-quality, All-New Mégane – loaded with technology features from higher-segment cars – is Renault's star attraction at this year's IAA in Frankfurt. Alongside a range of highly-efficient petrol and diesel engines, it will be available from launch as a GT created in association with Renaultsport. A 'Hybrid Assist' diesel will be added in 2017. The new Mégane goes on sale in mainland Europe early next year with UK deliveries anticipated in the summer.

SEAT Unveils New Mii FR Line And Latest Mii By Mango Limited Edition

Every SEAT Mii is a fashion statement. However, the new Mii by MANGO Limited Edition shows particularly individual style with its unique accessories – and just 750 of them will go on sale across Europe. They are recognisable at first sight from the exclusive three-coat paintwork in "Oryx white", with the door mirrors and wheels finished in a powerful, deep shade of red called "Velvet". Exterior details will be matching in some interior details, like the steering wheel, air vents and instrument panel. The sporty character of the Mii is especially enhanced in the likewise new SEAT Mii FR Line. This new version is recognisable on the outside through its exclusive 16-inch alloy wheels, Atom Grey door mirrors, exclusive trim strips and, naturally, the FR logo in the grille. Setting the FR Line apart are its sporty suspension tuning, plus a sporty black interior, featuring high-gloss and red accents as well as unique sports seats with piping and FR logo and leather steering wheel with red contrasting stitching.

Jeep Renegade Marks One Year

FIAT Chrysler Automobiles is celebrating the first year of Jeep Renegade production with a new virtual factory visit tool, accessible via Google™ Maps. Launched exactly a year ago, the Jeep Renegade was a ground-breaking vehicle for the brand in that it was the brand's first ever compact SUV and also the first Jeep vehicle built in Europe. Today, more than 135,000 Renegade units have rolled off the Melfi production line in Italy so far, contributing in no small way to the Jeep brand's continuing growth, having achieved its most successful sales year ever in 2014 with more than one million units sold. More recently, Jeep has enjoyed its best August sales month ever in North America while in Europe Jeep is the region's fastest-growing automotive brand so far in 2015, with the new Renegade already established as a best seller in Italy, France and Austria.

DS Automobiles' Three World Firsts

With its DS 4 Crossback Concept, New DS 4 & DS 4 Crossback and the DSV-01 Formula E car, DS Automobiles is on the offensive at the 2015 Frankfurt Motor Show. The DS stand represents a product and technology offensive, with new models and an expanded connectivity offering with the arrival of Apple CarPlay™ on DS

Connect. Visitors are also able to see Baby DS, star of the new DS Connect adverts. In a setting that will showcase elegance, French expertise, technology and the avant-garde spirit, the DS Automobiles stand is a must-see at the 66th International Motor Show in Frankfurt.

British Car Makers Unite!

The UK car industry united on Thursday 10th September, for a unique send-off ahead of one of the world's most influential motor shows – and the biggest in Europe. In an extraordinary gathering in Greenwich, London, senior executives from across the industry were joined by Business Secretary Sajid Javid, alongside 10 of their most exciting new cars now flying the British flag at this year's Frankfurt International Motor Show. Vehicles from the broad spectrum of Britain's thriving automotive industry were on display, from volume-produced family hatchbacks to high-end luxury and sports models. The global appetite for high-quality British-built cars has never been stronger with exports to more than 100 countries worldwide. Demand across Europe grew more than 10% last year, and overall car exports were worth £24.6 billion in 2014 – the most ever.

Nissan Gripz Concept Makes Global Debut

Designed to build on Nissan's pioneering Crossover leadership, Nissan's Gripz Concept has made its global premiere at the Frankfurt Motor Show. Inspiration for the Nissan Gripz Concept came from the legendary 240Z desert racers as well as the sleek two-wheel world of road cycling. The design explores a new sporty direction for a Crossover concept and was conceived to create an innovative new driving sensation. The world premiere took place at the Nissan stand on September 15th, 2015. Stay tuned for more innovative Crossover thinking from Nissan.

Japan stun us all in Rugby World Cup

Wrighton
SPORTmattwright@
lsnmedia.co.uk

mattywright86

BE honest, who saw that result coming between Japan and South Africa? I imagine there aren't too many hands raised right about now.

We live in an age where sporting contests and outcomes are sometimes overblown but that match in Brighton's Amex Stadium deserved all the hyperbole it received as we have never seen the likes of it before.

We all assumed the Springboks would run out easy winners. Certainly the bookies did, having Japan at odds of 80-1 to pull off what everybody thought was impossible.

I wasn't able to witness Karne Hesketh's winning try but knew something special was happening due to the colossal roar from the fans that remained at London Scottish's Athletic Ground to watch it in the clubhouse.

It was nothing against the Springboks; it was because everyone knew just what this result meant for rugby, a sport that for decades has been the preserve of a handful of superpowers.

It was the greatest result in the history of the Rugby World Cup, better even than England's Jonny Wilkinson inspired victory over Australia in the 2003 final.

While the latter did wonders for rugby in this country, the former could have more far-reaching consequences as it has shown developing nations that the gap, previously a yawning chasm, can be bridged.

The underdogs have been a credit to the tournament so far with Georgia creating a surprise of their own as they defeated Tonga 17-10 earlier last Saturday, before they were well and truly usurped.

Romania gave France's formidable forward pack a few problems before eventually going down 36-11, while even Namibia restricting New Zealand to 58 points on Thursday was a bit of a turn-up.

Before Thursday, Bedfordshire interest in the players at the Rugby World Cup only went as far as Tonga's Aleki Lutui, who signed for Amphyll in the summer ahead of their first-ever season in National League One.

While it represents how far the A's have risen in the last few years, it was fantastic to hear that Bedford Blues' James Pritchard will take part in the competition for a fourth time.

His international career appeared over after he was surprisingly left out of Canada's squad last month but 35 days later, their record points scorer is back in the fold.

It's also great news for all the Blues fans who bought tickets for Canada v France at stadiummk next Thursday only to think that they wouldn't be able to see their man in action.

All the best to Pritch, a top man who now has a more fitting end to his days as an international player.

In other news, Swiss prosecutors have now opened a criminal investigation against FIFA president Sepp Blatter on suspicion of 'misappropriation.' Blatter first tendered his resignation four months ago, with any luck this will hasten it.

Loan move for ex-Barton man

FORMER Barton Rovers striker, Keshi Anderson, is set to make his Football league debut after he joined League One side Doncaster Rovers from Crystal Palace on a one-month loan deal.

Anderson, a prolific scorer for Barton last season, earned a dream move to the Premier League club in February after scoring a six-minute hat-trick against them in a trial match while playing for Brentford.

This prompted their manager Alan Pardew to take a punt on the youngster, thus catapulting him from the seventh tier of English football to the top flight.

The 20-year-old also struck a treble for the Eagles' under-21 side against Barnsley just over a week ago and will now get an opportunity to show what he can do at senior level.

He has been brought in by Doncaster caretaker boss Rob Jones to provide cover up front after their striker Nathan Tyson suffered a setback in his recovery from a hamstring injury.

Anderson said: "The gaffer (Pardew) pulled me into his office and said there's been a few teams interested and he personally thought I should come here.

"I'm always going to listen to what the gaffer says so it's a good move for me with it being League One.

"The other teams that came in for me were League Two so he said this would be the best move for me."

Dunstable into next round

FOOTBALL

FA CUP SECOND QUALIFYING ROUND
DUNSTABLE TOWN 2
KINGSTONIAN 0

THE Blues secured their place in the third qualifying round of the cup with a convincing win over Kingstonian.

Chairman John McLaughlin called on the town to get behind the club against what promised to be a difficult fixture, which was duly answered when 173 fans made their way down to Creasey Park.

The two sides went in level at the break after an even first half, but it was all down to one man after the restart.

Midfielder Danny Talbot netted in the 53rd minute to give the hosts the lead, to which the visitors immediately responded by bringing on former Fulham, Leicester City and one-time Ghana international striker Elvis Hammond.

However, this had no impact on the game as the visitors were unable to break through the Dunstable back line.

The hosts made sure of the result in the 75th minute, with Talbot once again finding the net.

The hosts then saw out the game to secure their place in the hat for the next round as they get closer and closer to a spot in the competition proper.

Jordan not slowing down despite close of season

BOXING*BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A BOXER is hoping to make a big splash this weekend at the Ireland Box Cup.

Despite the amateur season finishing months ago, Luton fighter Jordan Reynolds (left) is testing himself on the international circuit.

In testament to his determination, he said: "I just want to stay active while everyone else is resting."

"I'm boxing the Danish champion in October and then am off to an England Team camp on the 11th."

The two time British Champion heads into this following a victorious trip to Milan in July, along with fellow Luton boxer Sam King.

The Lutonian has been causing a stir at the Ireland Box Cup, mostly due to his Elvis Presley persona, which included people holding signs saying 'Elvis has entered the building' on his arrival at the airport.

On his hopes in Ireland this weekend, Jordan said: "I'm still riding on the confidence I gained winning the Haringey Box Cup back in June."

"I'm definitely one of the favourites to take home the belt but you've got to reach a certain level to compete here."

"Everyone else here is a really strong fighter so I'm going to have to be at my best."

Yesterday, Jordan reached the final after beating Sunderland boxer Jordan Rought, which he will contest later today.

On why he keeps fighting, he said: "It's about getting noticed and also it improves you in the ring, especially in terms of gaining experience for your ring craft. My aim is to make the squad for the Rio Olympics next year, but failing that I want to go professional."

"The experience of fighting outside of Great Britain will help me whatever happens."

"Technically, anyone can go pro and many do so after only boxing on the British circuit."

"In terms of competition level, you have British championships, European and then World."

"By widening who I fight against, I feel I'm taking a step forwards in preparing myself for the future, whether that ends up with me being in Rio or not."

On his hopes should he turn pro, Jordan said: "I plan on making some big noise in the pros."

"I've won all the titles I need to in the amateurs and I feel I can make an impact as well as fill the seats."

Late double for Marriott gives Luton another win

SUPER SUB: Jack Marriott celebrates after scoring twice for Luton Town

LEAGUE TWO
LUTON TOWN 2
AFC WIMBLEDON 0

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

WE have lift off. The Hatters claimed their first back-to-back victory of the League Two campaign after super sub Jack Marriott came to the rescue with a brace to topple the ten-man resistance of AFC Wimbledon.

Until that 79th minute breakthrough, Town had toiled – though there are nothing if not efficient – with three shots on target and two goals.

Boss John Still said of match-winner Marriott: "He got one goalscorer's goal and the other one was a very composed finish – a better goal than some people might think it was. I was absolutely delighted with the patience we showed to play 90 minutes and do the job right."

"That was one of our best performances because we came up against a team that came here not to get beaten and I'm not knocking that. We had to be patient to win."

This was indeed a win by hook or by crook, not that there'll be a single Hatter that cares after the start to the season they've endured.

Their struggles at the sharp end were brought into sharper focus as they huffed and puffed with a numerical advantage for the best part of an hour where Wimbledon goalie James Shea was a virtual spectator.

Perhaps in Marriott – who also came off the bench against Bristol City in the Capital One Cup to score twice – they've found an impact player that can make that difference.

That's not to say Town were poor before his arrival, they were just devoid of inspiration. The long ball to Craig Mackail-Smith was their principle first half tactic, though rather than accurately pinpointing the striker it was more a case of punting into his general vicinity. Suffice to say, he spent a lot of time chasing lost causes.

As the marginally the better of the two sides until Karleigh Osbourne's 34th minute dismissal, the Dons trio of George Francomb, Andy Barcham Jake Reeves at least made Hatters keeper Mark Tyler work before the break. However, the outcome hinged largely on two incidents – the first with the red card, which came three minutes after a first caution for the Dons man, the second with a double substitution that saw Marriott and Alex Lawless enter the fray just after the hour.

Just as frustration began to grow, relief took over shortly after when Marriott scrambled home in front of the Kenilworth Road end for his first Football League goal for Luton.

As with previous weeks, the nerves threatened to set in as the Dons found new reserves of energy with Tyler required to tip over an Akinfenwa header, but they were settled four minutes into injury time with virtually the final kick of the game.

McGeehan fluffed his lines but Marriott made no mistake as the ball broke loose, blasting his second brace for the club.
